NEW PATHS OF COOPERATION
ACROSS THE MEDITERRANEAN

This new report contains the edited speeches of the 2010 EuroMeSCo Annual Conference, held on the occasion of the 15th Anniversary of the Barcelona Declaration. Distinguished experts and practitioners were convened to debate the future of Euro-Mediterranean politics in the light of the on-going institutional changes within the European Union and the new geopolitical context.

Launch of new series of EuroMeSCo publications

Reviewing the European Neighbourhood Policy: a weak response to fast changing

A joint series of IEMed and EuroMeSCo papers. The first issues of this series reflect the outcome of the EuroMeSCo Call for Papers, launched in October 2010 and open to experts and researchers linked to research, study and analysis centres and institutes focusing on the Mediterranean reality, members of the EuroMeSCo network. The first paper « Une conditionnalité dépourvue d'effectivité: clause démocratique et gestion des risques dans les relations Euromed » has been written by Abderrahim El Maslouhi.

- EuroMeSCo policy briefs, which are short opinion articles to foster debate on current Euro-Mediterranean politics and which are edited by Roberto Aliboni, Senior Research Advisor at IEMed. The first two briefs have been written by Timo Behr and Nathalie Tocci.

Brief 1: Reconfiguring Euro-Med Regional Cooperation, Timo Behr;

Brief 2: The European Union and the Arab Spring: A (Missed?) Opportunity to Revamp the European Neighbourhood Policy, Nathalie Tocci.
