

EuroMeSCo Annual Conference 2022 Towards more social justice and inclusiveness in Jordan

Jordan Country Event

In collaboration with the West Asia North Africa Institute (WANA)

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS

28 June 2022, Amman

Deadline to apply: 26 April 2022, 23:59hrs CET

This Country Event is part of the EuroMeSCo Annual Conference 2022 within the framework of the EuroMeSCo: Connecting the Dots project, co-funded by the European Union and the European Institute of the Mediterranean (IEMed). Co-organised with the West Asia North Africa Institute (WANA), this Country Event will provide an opportunity to discuss social justice and inclusiveness in Jordan.

The Jordan Country Event will gather around 40 participants from across the Mediterranean and its neighbouring regions. Participants will have the opportunity to discuss and exchange with EU officials, practitioners, researchers and think tankers on key issues in the Euro-Mediterranean area and contribute to policy shaping in the region.

Additionally, two selected authors (from the related Call for Papers) will be given the opportunity to present paper proposals in an open exchange with a broad audience. This session will address the interlinkages between social justice and sustainable development in Jordan.

The aim of this call is to select up to 15 researchers and think tankers from the Euro-Mediterranean region and its neighbouring regions to participate and actively intervene in the Country Event. Participants will be selected based on their professional and academic background. Priority will be given to researchers affiliated to institutes which are members of the EuroMeSCo network.
